

The 60th Annual Conference of Chinese Society for Quality 2024 International Symposium of Quality Management

Chinese Quality Management 60-Year Legacy for a Sustainable Future

Call for Papers

Dear Colleagues

The 2024 International Symposium of Quality Management (ISQM) and the 60th Annual Conference of the Chinese Society for Quality (CSQ) will be held on November 9, 2024, at National Chengchi University, Taiwan. The symposium and conference are organized by the Chinese Society for Quality and co-hosted with National Chengchi University.

The theme of the symposium and conference is Chinese Quality Management: 60-Year Legacy for a Sustainable Future. Celebrating the 60th anniversary this year, CSQ has been a pioneering force in introducing quality control and quality management concepts to the Chinese community. Over the past 60 years, CSQ has trained quality professionals across various industries in Taiwan and assisted industries in establishing quality management system and strived for the application and practice of theory and practicality in the field of quality. As a vanguard in promoting quality among the Chinese community, we anticipate that our foundational efforts will drive the future pursuits towards sustainability.

As quality engineering and management play pivotal roles in the symposium and conference. We invite scholars, practitioners, and professionals to share their invaluable findings in the fields of quality engineering and management.

The symposium and conference offer an interactive forum where participants can discuss the current status, challenges, and future trends of quality development in the era of Chinese Quality Management Areas of interest include, but are not limited to the following:
